U.S. Radio DJs Release New House EP

Famous US radio DJs and producers Rubicon 7 to release their new “You Fall Down” EP with Swedish house label Clubstream Blue on August 27th.

Rubicon 7 is the creative hybrid of Elizabeth Thompson's cutting-edge DJ sensibilities together with the production and composition of the classically trained Brandon Scott. Their unique collaboration results in an unmistakable style that blurs the lines around the typical genres of electronic dance music.

In addition to their original productions, the mix show “Under The Influence with Rubicon 7” airs twice a month on ETN.fm dance radio and represents the duo's current favorite electro and progressive tracks.

Now, Rubicon 7 has teamed up with the internationally recognized record company Substream to release a new EP on their Clubstream Blue label. “You Fall Down” is a melodic progressive house track with a deep, powerful bass and a powerful vocal.

The EP also features a massive remix by Italian electro DJs The Moogs. The remix carries the signature aggressive electro sound of the duo, famous for their “rippin” basslines.

About Rubicon 7

Longtime production and songwriting partners Brandon Scott and Elizabeth Thompson broke onto the global dance scene with their Summer 2009 hit “Over” with legendary DJ and producer George Acosta.

Successive tracks have risen up charts across the US, including “Stay” where Rubicon 7 collaborated once again with Acosta for a single on house music veteran Robbie Rivera’s Juicy Music. The release of “Stay,” which featured remixes by Robbie Rivera, saw tremendous success on SiriusXM’s BPM dance radio station as well as Internet dance radio station RadioDanz. After beating out both Madonna and Lady Gaga for the #1 Hot New Dance Release on Amazon.com in November of 2009, "Stay" remained in rotation on dance radio across the U.S. months after its debut on Beatport.

Looking to appeal to their rapidly growing European fanbase, Rubicon 7 signed the club single "Wonder" to up-and-coming UK dance label ebonyRed records. Released Spring 2010, "Wonder" delivered an energetic progressive house vibe blended with the unmistakable Rubicon 7 vocals.

With commercial electronic dance at their core, Rubicon 7 blurs genre lines with catchy melodies and pop inspired sometimes male, sometimes female vocals. In the Fall of 2010 they completed a remarkable studio collaboration titled "Hold Me Back" with international tech house DJ and producer Merlyn Martin in early 2011. Released by world-renowned house label Baker Street Recordings, the "Hold Me Back" EP, which included remixes from Jamie Anderson, Angel Alanis and Torin, gained notice by top names in house music.

Amid a growing remix schedule, Rubicon 7 released the club hit "Dream Like This" on Polytechnic Recordings with remixes from DJ /Producer DJ Josh Abrams (Frisky/Loöq) and veteran DJ/producer Robert Oleysyck (Curve/Republik). Shortly thereafter, the duo released "Make The Noise" on System Recordings with remixes by Top40 producer and hitmaker Sylvane (aka Lenny B.).

In 2011, Rubicon 7 contributed a radio edit and an extended club mix for the Speedboats and Big Explosions feat. Marcie – "Hazel Eyes" release on System Recordings, which quickly became a favorite for fans of both groups. The November 17 release of "Anybody But You" on System Recordings includes a sensational electro house remix from SpekrFreks (Play Digital, System Recordings).
