South-African House Label Releases Showcase Album on The Swedish Label Dansant

The Cape Town house and techno label Triplefire Music releases a new label showcase album on label Dansant from Gothenburg, Sweden.

TRIPLEFIRE MUSIC

Triplefire Music is a Cape Town based independent record company which represents music and artists the world over. With regular international record releases, the brand consistently garners support from fans spanning the globe.

Covering a select range of dance genres from the dark and driving side of Techno and Tech House to the musical side of Deep and Progressive House, the company has rapidly grown to incorporate music publishing, digital distribution and an inhouse studio facility.

The folks at Red Bull Studios in Cape Town quoted Triplefire Music as "one of South Africa's best-kept secrets".

Artists releasing on the label include South African dance music mainstays such as Ryan Sullivan, Helmut J, Audiophile 021, The Beat Prophet, Dakin Auret, Lady M and Matt Prehn aka Leigh Deep and international artists Maxplay, Soundmodul & Moffous, Kramnik, Ewan Rill, Wael B and Lew Ashby amongst others.

Triple Fire Music Vol 1-3

The compilation series consists of three volumes all released this winter, each focused on one of the label's styles tech-house, progressive and techno. Volume 3 is just released now.
